ABOUT THE ASSOCIATIONS

The American College of Forensic Examiners InstituteSM (ACFEI) www.acfei.com

The American College of Forensic Examiners Institute is the world's largest professional scientific forensic membership society. Multidisciplinary in its scope, the society actively promotes the dissemination of forensic information. ACFEI's purpose is to continually advance the profession of forensic examination and consultation across the many professional fields of its membership by elevating standards through education, basic and advanced training, and Diplomate status. ACFEI believes forensic examiners do not win or lose cases. Forensic examiners seek the truth by conducting evaluations, examinations, and inquiries and reporting the true results of their findings in an unbiased and objective manner.

The American Board for Certification in Homeland Security, CHS[®] www.abchs.com

The American Board for Certification in Homeland Security, CHS[®], program has earned its reputation as the professional membership association dedicated to the certification, training, and continuing education of professionals across the nation who are committed to improving homeland security. The goal of the ABCHS program is to facilitate collaborative partnerships and strong working relationships among homeland security professionals from the public and private sector and incident management first-responder organizations, recognizing that each has unique talents and abilities to contribute to the security of our nation. At the core of the ABCHS membership are some of the world's leading decision-makers, who have significant experience and knowledge in homeland security.

The American Psychotherapy Association[®] (APA) www.americanpsychotherapy.com

The American Psychotherapy Association[®] is a membership society for psychotherapists of various disciplines, including counseling, social work, marriage and family therapy, psychology, nurse psychotherapy, pastoral counseling, psychiatry, psychoanalysis, and other related fields. The association's purpose is to establish a cohesive national organization that advances the mental health profession by elevating standards through education, training, and promoting ethical, highly educated, and well-credentialed psychotherapists.

The American Association of Integrative MedicineSM (AAIM) www.aaimedicine.com

The American Association of Integrative MedicineSM recognizes that health is more than the absence of disease and that a multi-disciplinary approach to medicine provides the maximum therapeutic benefit. AAIM's advocacy for broader treatment options facilitates a bond between integrative and Western medicine. The association is a gathering place where healers, educators, and researchers from all specialties can compare notes and combine forces, benefiting both the patient and the health care provider.
